POLICE BUILDING BLAZE

Cries of "fire" caused exettement during this morning's session of the local city court. The alarm was spread by a nurse in the dental cliffic department on the third floor of the Police and Charities building where a smouldering fire in a pile of cloth dressings caused the clinic room to become filled with smoke.

As the alarm was sounded Detective Peter Hackett, who was looking over his daily report, jumped from his chair in the detective bureau and grabbing a large bottle of distilled spring water rushed to the scene of the conflagration. Here the heroic sleuth found great difficulty in extinguishing the flames owing to the short neck in the bottle causing the water to flow slowly. But Peter had patience and after two minutes the contents of the bottle had completely extinguished the flames and no dam age was done.

REASONABLE PRICES

IT DOES NOT follow that because a Jeweller sells Silverware bearing the best known trade mark, high grade Jewelry and genuine Precious Stones, his prices are necessarily high.

IF YOU are one of the many thousands who have found this rather "lean" year and do not feel that you can stand a very heavy investment in holiday giftscome here and look about.

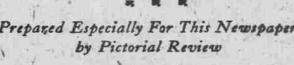

YOU WILL be surprised at the reasonable price on articles of the highest values and you will find that your money will go much further than you expected.
